Short description of the company	Pappagallo is a private educational facility for children and adults alike, mostly with students aged 4 to 14. We are a modern school with a unique approach to foreign language education and our students, basing our outstanding tradition on developing quality relationships with students and their families, our attendees returning year after year, sharing wonderful experiences, learning languages and exploring foreign cultures and countries. At the same time we are constantly evolving our teaching techniques and practices, keeping up with the latest in foreign language teaching and hosting internationally acknowledged exams. A number of foreign teachers have been and still are members of our staff. We also have an ongoing experience in mentoring students and interns.
Other	Pappagallo is located in Split, a typical Mediterranean seaside town, vibrant, charming and fun. As the largest Dalmatian town, it offers its inhabitants and visitors loads to do. The famous sandy beach Bačvice, most popular amongst tourists and locals alike, is literally one minute walk from our school.
